11. Summary

Summary of PP Actions

1. The American Latvian Association in the U.S. has offered its support to the Congressional committee established under the "Kersten Resolution."

2. The Latvian charge d'affaires in Washington, Mr. Julijs Feldmans, is reportedly very seriously ill and it is doubtful whether he will ever again be able to assume his responsibilities in the Legation. No replacement has been announced; however, Mr. Vilis Masens, Chairman of the Latvian Council of NCPE, has been attempting to influence the senior Latvian diplomat-in-exile, Ambassador Karlis Zarins, with the view to be named to that post.

3. The senior Latvian diplomat-in-exile (in London), Karlis Zarins, is reportedly ill and had taken a short vacation in Spain, presumably in the vicinity of Madrid.

4. Alberts Kalme @ Gedrovics, author of "Total Terror," has been seeking financial support for another publication. It is alleged that such support was offered him by the newly created Congressional committee under the "Kersten Resolution."
